

North East Florida Symposium on Maritime Archaeology

25-27 March 2009
Schedule of Events

Wednesday March 25

Time	Event
8:30-9:00	Morning Paper Session, St. Augustine Lighthouse & Museum Morning Registration
9:00-9:45	Welcome & Introduction Kathy Fleming, St. Augustine Lighthouse & Museum Michael Shirley, Guana-Tolomato-Matanzas Research Reserve Marty Healey, Guana-Tolomato-Matanzas Research Reserve
9:45-10:30	Astilleros Nereo and LAMP Boatworks: Bridging the Atlantic through Replicas Sam Turner, LAMP
10:30-11:15	Sixteenth-Century Caravels in the Twenty-First Century Filipe Castro, Texas A&M University
11:15-12:00	The Sarsfield Replica: A Well Informed Replica Project Morgan Sanger, The Columbus Foundation (Niña replica)
12:00-1:30	LUNCH (Pizza buffet at Pizza Garden, $11)
1:30-2:15	Afternoon Paper Session, St. Augustine Lighthouse & Museum Learning By Doing: Reconstructing an Ancient Egyptian Seagoing Ship Cheryl Ward, Florida State University
2:15-3:00	Origins, Construction, and Operation of the Schooner Denis Sullivan LeeAnne Gordon, Schooner Denis Sullivan
3:00-3:45	Maritime Heritage Trails: A Model for the Apalachicola River Irina Franklin, University of West Florida and FPAN
3:45-4:30	Archaeology Under New Hampshire Waters: Boats, Bridges, Sluices David Switzer, Plymouth State University

7:00-8:00 KeyNote Address, Flagler Room, Flagler College
Dr. Russell K. Skowronek, Santa Clara University “X Marks the Spot—Or does it?: Fiction and Fact in the Archaeology of Piracy”

Thursday March 26

8:00-8:30 Field Trip or Workshop Options
Morning Registration, St. Augustine Lighthouse & Museum

8:30-12:00 Guided tour of the facilities, grounds, and archaeological sites of the Guana-Tolomato-Matanzas National Estuarine Research
Reserve (carpool leaving Lighthouse at 8:30 am)

8:30-12:00 Shipwreck Artifact Recording Workshop at the St. Augustine
Lighthouse

12:00-1:30 LUNCH (pre-ordered box lunches at Lighthouse, $11)

1:30-2:15 Afternoon Paper Session, St. Augustine Lighthouse & Museum
An “Adventure” at Charles Towne Landing – Rebuilding and Managing a 17th-century Tall Ship
Patrick Cook, Charles Towne Landing (Adventure II)

2:15-3:00 North Carolina’s Elizabeth II: A 25 Year Perspective on Operating a Replica Ship
Scott Stroh, Roanoke Island Festival Park (Elizabeth II)

3:00-3:25 The Brick Wreck: Preliminary Investigation of a Recently Discovered 19th-century Brick Carrying Vessel
Dean Nones, University of West Florida

3:25-3:50 The Submerged History of Kentucky Lake
Tiffany Goldhamer, University of West Florida

3:50-4:35 HMS Fowey Lost and Found
George Fischer, National Park Service and Florida State University and Russell Skowronek, Santa Clara University

6:30-10:00 Booksigning and Dinner Reception
St Augustine Lighthouse & Museum
($25 buffet style dinner, and booksigning for HMS Fowey Lost and Found and X Marks the Spot: the Archaeology of Piracy)

Friday March 27

8:30-9:00 Morning Paper Session, St. Augustine Lighthouse & Museum
Morning Registration

- 9:00-9:45 The Schooner Virginia and Florida's Role in HAMMS - Historic American Merchant Marine Survey
Tom Carr and Dan Smith, avocational historians
- 9:45-10:30 Voyage of the Alligator - The Story of an Ocklawaha River Steamboat and Some of the History of the Lucas Line
Dan Smith, avocational historian
- 10:30-11:15 Hunting the Alligator: Investigation of the Steamboat Remains at Grimsley Cove, Crescent Lake
Chuck Meide and Christine Mavrack, LAMP
- 11:15-12:00 500 Fathoms of Water: The Archaeological Remains of a Mid-Late Nineteenth Century Sailing Vessel in the Gulf of Mexico
Christopher Horrell, Minerals Management Service
- 12:00-1:30 LUNCH (Gypsy Cab buffet, $13)
- 1:30-2:15 Afternoon Paper Session, St. Augustine Lighthouse & Museum World War II and the Battle of the Atlantic
David Ball, Minerals Management Service
- 2:15-3:00 Rocks and Rubbish: Pensacola's Maritime Community Exposed
Kendra Kennedy, University of West Florida
- 3:00-3:25 Synergy of the Cultural and the Natural: The Heritage Awareness Diving Seminar
Della Scott-Ireton, Florida Public Archaeology Network (FPAN) and Debra Shefi, Florida Bureau of Archaeological Research
- 3:25-3:50 Comparison of Plant Remains from the Emanuel Point Shipwrecks
Colleen Reese, University of West Florida
- 3:50-4:15 The St. Augustine Logboat
Robin Moore, St. Johns County
- 4:15-4:40 Florida's Fleet: An Ebb Tide of Shrimpers on the San Sebastian River
Brendan Burke, LAMP
- 6:15-8:15 Sunset River Cruise
Victory III Cruise and Remote Sensing Technology Demonstration ($30, drinks included)